

The Gender Desk, recognizes the month of February as a month of love and therefore encourages the UPCSA family to love one another unconditionally remembering the following words by Jesus:

"The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'