

THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN SOUTHERN AFRICA
ETHIOPIC PRESBYTERY
KHAYELELE CONGREGATION, UMLAZI

VACANCY: MINISTERIAL POSITION

Applications are invited from a suitable and ordained Ministers of Word and Sacraments in the United Presbyterian Church in Southern Africa for a fulltime five years term appointment, with effect from the 1st January 2025 at Khayelele United Presbyterian Church situated in uMlazi, Durban, KwaZulu Natal in the Republic of South Africa.

Khayelele is a congregation situated in the locality of uMlazi township. The said congregation shares a vision of being 'Ikhaya lobo bonke abantu bakaMveloko, aqhambanele uMhlabi, ubungu kanye nokholiso' roughly translated to mean 'a home of all children of God and pride herself of love, unity and respect.' This congregation has an enrolment of +1000 congregants with a potential of growth, meanwhile uMlazi (situated 17km southeast of Durban) has a population of about 400 000, whereas some estimates indicate a higher population figure – up to 1 million people.

Khayelele has a functional Session which meets at a regular interval. The Stewardship Committee of the Session has always been able to maintain a sustainable financial stability for the congregation. The Session is prepared to pool resources together to provide a competitive emoluments package which will be discussed with the discerned candidate.

Applications and requests for additional information to be addressed to:

The Interim Moderator, the Rev. Sibusiso Zungu, 0840717108, stuzungu@umca.org.za

A Curriculum Vitae (with contactable references) and a motivation letter are required for a discernment process.

The closing date for application is: 31 July 2024.