

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITY

Applications are invited from accredited ministers of the Church Unity Commission to fill the vacancy for a full-time minister at the Bergvliet Congregational Church, Cape Town

Bergvliet Congregational Church (BCC) is situated in Bergvliet, Cape Town and has been worshipping from these premises since 1956. BCC has a faithful but small and predominantly aging membership of approximately 100 members and is seeking a suitably qualified person to fill the position of full-time minister.

The person we are looking for to fill the position should possess most or all of the following characteristics:

1. Conform to the educational standards as required by the United Congregational Church of Southern Africa (UCCSA).
2. Be a family person with at least 10 years' experience – probably in the 30 – 45 year age group.
3. Be Christ-centred, Bible-based and Spirit-filled.
4. Besides preaching and teaching competencies, be an inspirational leader.
5. Be able to relate and minister to the congregation comprising a wide range of ages from young to old.
6. Have the ability to work with the diaconate and congregation to redevelop and implement the vision for the future of the church and be able to embrace change where necessary.
7. Be patient, thoughtful and possess a high degree of integrity and have a love for people.
8. Have adequate organisational and administrative skills including being able to follow through with plans and activities.
9. Be actively involved in Regional Council activities.

The Bergvliet Congregational Church profile can be requested from the church secretary.

Interested applicants should submit a detailed CV and letter of application (setting out your understanding of your sense of calling to lead and facilitate the ministry at BCC), as well as copies of supporting documentation and qualification, with at least two contactable references to:
